

BRITISH WEIGHT LIFTING

Marie Forteath

European Champion

World Medallist

Marie Forteath was a European Champion & World Medallist in the late eighties.

She secured a silver in the clean & jerk at the inaugural women's World Championship event in 1987 held in Daytona.

She snatched 57.5kg and then clean & jerked 80kg to finish with a total of 137.5 which secured her fifth position overall in the 56kg class.

Forteath also won gold for Great Britain at the Panonnia Cup.

The following year she held the European snatch, clean & jerk and total records in 1988 after a strong performance in San Marino which saw her crowned the 56kg continental champion.